Asset-to-Owner Connection

When entities holding unclaimed assets have tried and failed to reach the rightful owners, the money is set aside, usually for a time period set by law. If no one comes forward to claim the money before the legal deadline, the entity either transfers the funds to another location or absorbs the money and all rights to claim the funds disappear. Typically, people have no way to search for the types of assets we recover, so we provide a much-needed bridge between asset holders and the individuals or organizations with rights to claim them.

Nation's Largest

As the nation's largest asset location and recovery firm, we set the professional standard, as demonstrated by our unparalleled success. Part of that success stems from the sophisticated technology we developed to locate assets and potential claimants, process claims, and track each one to completion. From our corporate headquarters, we reach out around the world to connect assets with individuals and organizations entitled to claim them. Long before we call a client, we have already invested countless hours arranging the many pieces that make the first phone call possible.

Expert Staff

The greatest reason for our success lies in our staff of more than 20 experts who understand the challenges of each phase of the asset recovery process. When you initiate a claim through any one of us, you also receive the support of an entire team of professionals skilled in each aspect and every step necessary to bring about success. We stay with you throughout the claims process and remain available to answer questions and provide updates.

Contingency – Fee Services

When you pursue a claim with Global Discoveries, Ltd., we will provide you with a written agreement of our services and fees for you to read and sign. We work on a contingency-fee basis, meaning that we collect an agreed-upon percentage of the claim when payment is received. You do not pay us anything until your claim is successfully settled. We receive nothing if your claim is denied.

No Hidden Costs

As experts in the field, Global Discoveries, Ltd., is well-versed in professionally compiling and substantiating its client's rights. We advance all costs necessary to process and file each and every claim. We are contingency-fee based and our clients pay no upfront costs or out of pocket expenses. We take all of the the risk out of submitting a claim yourself. Because we only get paid if the asset is recovered, you can rest assured that we will keep costs to a minimum.
